

Initiation in the Sovereign Solar Order of Chichen Itza

Hunbatz Men

It has been prophesied that the initiates shall return to the sacred Mayan lands to continue the labor of the Great Spirit. In Mexico, in the lands of the Mayab, the great wisdom emerged from its cycle of light and illuminated the humankind for several millennia. This wisdom was previously placed here by the Mayan-Atlantis Itza masters in order to illuminate the human beings forever.

THE MASTERS WILL RETURN TO JOIN WITH ITZA SPIRITS

In this time, the incarnated masters will come back to the lands of the Mayab to make contact with the great Itza spirits so they can indicate together the new initiation, which will be taught to all the human beings for them to practice. The great masters, together with the great spirits, will become a unique being, and they will be able to travel as the wind itself, to fall down as the rain does, to heat as the fire does, but—most importantly—to impart the sacred knowledge.

The masters will arrive here from many different places. Among them will be many differences. There will be masters of different skin colors; some will speak of topics very difficult to understand. Some will be very old, others not so old; some will dance, whereas others will be still like rocks. But the gazes of these masters will cornmunicate the initiatic message to be followed in the new millennium.

MANY PEOPLE WILL COME FOR INITIATION

It has also been prophesied that this initiation will be only for the future initiates in the cosmic wisdom. Many people will come: some very young, others not so young. Among these people will be adult men and women who will have already understood that this modern civilization is not properly fulfilling its task of educating people with responsibility, because—as is already known—this modern civilization is provoking a big lag in people's cosmic spiritual development.

The Mayan ceremonial centers have started emanating the light of the new millennium. Many of these cosmic centers have already started emitting their solar reflex, a call for the initiates who will come to continue the labor of the Great Spirit. In many of these centers people will see the solar priests walking among the crowds of tourists for the first time. These tourists will be touched by the solar priests in order to be initiated in the cosmic wisdom.

The Mayan masters will start manifesting themselves in the trees, in the Sun, in the Moon and in the stars.

They will also be manifesting themselves in houses, to indicate to families that the new time to continue the cosmic initiatic work has already arrived. Many people will not understand this, since it will happen when they are sleeping or sleepy, or when they lose the notion of time for a few seconds.

Everything will change in this New Age, including human genetics, which will be moved by the sacred energy of the Father Sun and his seven cosmic brothers who will help him to elevate the human consciousness.

THE GODS FROM THE STARS WILL BLESS THE CEREMONIES

When the sacred energies of the masters and initiates all together are performing the ceremonies in the sacred Mayan centers, then the gods who are in the stars will peer and bless their sons and daughters who have returned again to continue the cosmic spiritual labor of the new millennium. These gods from the stars will announce in all directions of the four cardinal points the good news of the new beginning of the cosmic human being.

These gods from the stars will call the masters of the day, of the night and of the beyond, and they will ask them once again to glance over humanity and help them have a good awakening within the solar light. These gods will also peer inside the human bodies and ask the heart to beat rhythmically according to the rhythm of the universe. They will ask the stomach to accept only natural food, and they will ask the head to stop believing in this false modern society.

SECRETS FROM THE PAST WILL BE REVEALED

Then, when both masters and initiates agree on all this, the spirits will manifest in different forms. The eagle, the serpent and the jaguar will show us what they know about our ancestors. The sacred tree will illuminate us with all its wisdom. All of these beings will transmit to us information about our Mayan ancestors, and this will be the moment when a grand ritual of the cosmic conjugation between the human and all the other living beings will take place.

The series of rituals and ceremonies will begin in the early part of this millennium in some of the four thousand Mayan ceremonial centers in these sacred lands of the Mayab in Mexico. Today, there are just a few thousand initiates in this hard labor, but tomorrow, the Mayan prophecies say, all humans will return to the ancient ceremonial centers to meet their obligation, which was abruptly interrupted by colonialism.

THE SACRED TEMPLES WILL EMERGE AGAIN

Chichen Itza, the grand Mayan ceremonial center, was considered the cosmic university of America in ancient times. Hundreds of people came to study several kinds of science. It is said that the summary of humanity's knowledge is found in its pyramids and temples, because all the great knowledge of the Mayan-Atlantis Itza masters was deposited there when they arrived in the lands of the Mayab.

In the Pyramid of Kukulcan, the masters placed the sacred Mayan calendars. At first sight, the initiate can observe the calendars of the Sun, the Moon and the Pleiades. Only after understanding these first calendars will the initiates be able to understand the other fourteen calendars, in order to finally arrive at the comprehension of the grand cycle of the calendar of the Pleiades. This calendar consists of twenty-six thousand years and is the one that actually performs the great changes on the Mother Earth.

In the astronomical observatory of this sacred center of Chichen Itza will be found the knowledge of how the ancient Mayas made their observations of the planets, stars and galaxies. Here they observed all the solar movements, through the small windows of this observatory. Here they made calculations about the movements of Venus, Mars, Jupiter and the other planets in the solar system. They were able to predict the future of our Mother Earth using this knowledge.

THE ANCIENT INITIATIONS WILL BE PERFORMED AGAIN

In the place called the cosmic church of this sacred Mayan ceremo-

nia center, it is possible to observe how the ancient Mayas performed the initiation with water, because the mouth of the Grand Chak, where the initiates used to enter, is still visible. In the interior of this temple they received the initiation in order to understand how this water transformed itself into the blood, the sweat and the liquid that is found in the marrow of our bones. This sacred knowledge was taught in this ancient temple by the Sovereign Solar Order of Chichen Itza to all the initiates, who came from all around the world to the sacred Mayan lands.

The Sovereign Solar Order of Chichen Itza will be responsible for providing the grades of initiation in these sacred temples of the cosmic Itzas. In this way, the Mayas who are aware of the tradition will bring back the wisdom of the Mayan ancestors to help humanity. In this way the Mayan cosmic prophecy will come back to be fulfilled.
